

November 16, 2016

County Council Election Results

Two new members will join Beaufort County Council after last week's election. York Glover will represent District 3 and Michael Covert will represent District 7 after being sworn into office in January 2017.

York Glover succeeds Councilman Bill McBride, who is retiring after serving on County Council for 40 years. Michael Covert will succeed Cynthia Bensch, who was elected to the District 7 Seat in November of 2012.

Incumbent County Councilmembers Gerald Dawson (District 1) and Brian Flewelling (District 5) retained their seats on Council after the November 8 election where they faced no formal opposition.

Residents may view official Beaufort County election results online by visiting bcgov.net/vote.