Treasurer's Office Begins Posting of Notice of Levy on Delinquent Property

The Beaufort County Treasurer's Office will begin levying delinquent properties on August 8, 2016. This is the process in which a Notice of Levy sign will be affixed to the property to notify the owner that the property taxes have not been paid. Not all delinquent property will be posted. If the Treasurer's Office receives an appropriately signed certified notice prior to posting, that delinquent property will not be posted.

Delinquent property owners have until August 31, 2016, to pay the taxes in full before an additional delinquent fee of $50.00 is added. Personal checks will not be accepted after August 31, 2016. The taxes must be paid by 5 p.m. on September 30, 2016, to prevent the property from being auctioned at the Delinquent Tax Sale. The Beaufort County Delinquent Tax Sale will take place on October 3, 2016, at the Charles "Lind" Brown Gymnasium, 1001 Hamar Street, Beaufort. No payments will be accepted for the delinquent property on the day of the auction.
