End of Redemption Period Extended

Due to the closure of Beaufort County's government offices on October 5, 2016 and October 6, 2016, the Beaufort County Treasurer has extended the redemption period for properties sold at the 2015 Delinquent Tax Sale until Friday, October 14, 2016. According to a release issued by Maria Walls, Beaufort County Treasurer, she wants to ensure that delinquent taxpayers have every opportunity possible to keep their property.

Delinquent property owners will have until 5 p.m. on Friday, October 14, 2016 to redeem their property by paying all taxes, fees and penalties owed. Taxes may be paid at one of the three Treasurer office locations or by mail. Current redemption amounts can be found online here or by calling 843-255-2600.
