

October 31, 2016

Two Disaster Recovery Centers Open in Beaufort County

Two Disaster Recovery Centers are now open in Beaufort County. The Federal Emergency Management Agency and the South Carolina Emergency Management Division have selected two sites - one in Beaufort and one on Hilton Head Island - for Beaufort County residents.

The centers are established as one-stop shops to assist individuals applying for Individual Assistance through FEMA. Specialists from FEMA, the U.S. Small Business Administration and other agencies are on hand at both DRCs to answer questions and provide information on the types of assistance available.

The two DRCs are located at:

Burton Wells Recreation Center

1 Middleton Recreation Dr.
Beaufort, SC 29906

9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Monday - Wednesday

This location will open at 1 p.m. on Monday, October 31.

Town of Hilton Head Island Town Hall

1 Town Center Court
Hilton Head Island, SC 29928

9 a.m. to 7 p.m., Thursday and Friday

10 a.m. to 6 p.m., Saturday

Visit the FEMA individual assistance website to learn more about what is offered to individuals in Beaufort County or visit www.disasterassistance.gov.