

March 4, 2017

County Network Experiencing Slowness Affecting Website

Beaufort County is experiencing network slowness affecting the loading time of pages on its website and the functionality of its online public calendar. The public may still access information to the County's public meeting schedule and agendas here. The County is also aware of a software misconfiguration issue temporarily affecting access to some records in its Register of Deeds Office. Staff members in the Information Technology Division are actively working with a vendor to troubleshoot these issues.