

July 24, 2017

Notice of Levy Posting on Delinquent Properties Begins

The Beaufort County Treasurer's Office will begin levying delinquent properties on August 7, 2017. This is the process in which a Notice of Levy sign is affixed to a property to notify the owner that the property taxes have not been paid. To avoid a property being posted, the delinquent property owner must sign and return their certified notice or pay the property taxes due. On August 31, 2017, an additional penalty of fifty dollars ($50.00) will be added and personal checks will no longer be accepted for payment.

The Beaufort County Delinquent Tax Sale will take place on October 2, 2017 at the Charles "Lind" Brown Gymnasium at 1001 Hamar Street in Beaufort. The taxes must be paid by 5 p.m. on September 29, 2017 to prevent the property from being auctioned at the Delinquent Tax Sale. No payments will be accepted for delinquent properties on the day of the auction.

To pay or for more information about the delinquency process and the tax sale, visit www.BeaufortCountyTreasurer.com.

Administration Building | 100 Ribaut Road | Post Office Drawer 1228 | Beaufort, South Carolina 29901 www.bcgov.net | communications@bcgov.net