

September 7, 2017

Beaufort County Offices Closed September 8

Due to the inclement weather forecasted with Hurricane Irma, all County government offices will close at 12 noon on Friday, September 8 and remain closed until further notice. All County public meetings and other scheduled activities for September 11-15 are suspended until further notice. Emergency services and law enforcement will remain available.

The County strongly encourages the public to prepare for severe weather and to monitor the storm on local news media and the following information outlets:

- Beaufort County Sheriff's Office
- National Hurricane Center
- National Weather Service
- South Carolina Emergency Management Division
- South Carolina Hurricane Guide
- The Weather Channel

South Carolina Governor Henry McMaster and State officials will hold a press conference at 2 p.m. today.