Hilton Head Island Airport Earns International Award for Airport Training Excellence

Hilton Head Island Airport earned its seventh consecutive Airport News and Training Network (ANTN) Digicast Excellence in Airport Training Award, presented by the American Association of Airport Executives.

The award signifies that employees at the Hilton Head Island Airport have completed a specified amount of federally mandated, airport-specific training using ANTN Digicast's web-based training system.

"Receiving this recognition from AAEE is an honor that signifies our commitment to safety, which is our top priority," said Beaufort County Airports Director Jon Rembold. "One of our top focus areas is improving the passenger experience, which is accomplished by building a team that is adequately trained in airport operations, aircraft rescue, security and high-quality service."
