

June 14, 2017

New Coastal Kingdom Episode to Focus on Lowcountry Conservation

A new episode of The County Channel's award-winning nature series, Coastal Kingdom will air this Sunday, June 18 at 8 p.m. The episode, Lowcountry Conservation, will feature some of the hard-working scientists doing research in the field to help preserve and protect our local wildlife. Segments include Diamondback Terrapins at the Waddell Mariculture Center, Oyster Catchers with Dr. Al Segars of the SC Department of Natural Resources, and a look at storm ecology in the aftermath of Hurricane Matthew. Coastal Kingdom is hosted by naturalist and educator Tony Mills of Spring Island, and is a production partnership between The LowCountry Institute and The County Channel.

Watch the County Channel live on Comcast channel 2, Hargray channels 9 and 113, and Spectrum (formerly Time Warner) channel 63. Viewers can also watch programming online at The County Channel's website at www.bcgov.net. For more information, contact Scott Grooms, Broadcast Services Manager at 843-255-2036.