

Beaufort County, South Carolina
General Announcement

January 2, 2018

Beaufort County Offices Closed January 3
Due to Winter Weather

Due to wintery precipitation (snow, sleet, and freezing rain) forecasted to affect our area tomorrow, Wednesday, January 3, all Beaufort County offices will be closed. Law enforcement and public safety personnel will remain available. The County strongly encourages the public to prepare for inclement weather and to avoid roadways tomorrow. Weather conditions can be monitored on local news channels and via other information outlets including the following:

- National Weather Service
- South Carolina Emergency Management Division
- The Weather Channel

Information regarding business operating hours at Beaufort County facilities for Thursday, January 4, will be updated at a later time, as officials continue to monitor weather conditions.

All updates regarding the County's operating schedule will be posted to the County website (www.bcgov.net) under News and Announcements.
