CERT Class Schedule for February

Beaufort County residents interested in learning more about self-sufficiency during a disaster are invited to participate in the Community Emergency Response Team Program. The CERT program provides training for individuals to increase self-sufficiency in a disaster. Participants will learn to provide emergency assistance to their families and neighbors. CERT classes are free of charge. The next series will start February 6. Classes will be held at the Technical College of the Lowcountry campus in Bluffton at 100 Community College Drive in room 125 [\[map\]](#).

The course will be taught in four class sessions from 6 p.m. to 9 p.m. and one Saturday exercise class from 9 a.m. to 5 p.m.:

Tuesday, February 6 - Personal Preparedness and Hazard Mitigation

Thursday, February 8 - Disaster Medical I

Tuesday, February 13 - Disaster Psychology / Terrorism Response

Thursday, February 15 - Disaster Medical II / CERT Organization

Saturday, February 17 - Fire Suppression / Disaster Search Techniques Exercise
