

Public meeting to review May River plan postponed

Published Tuesday, September 20, 2011

A public meeting scheduled for Thursday that was to give Bluffton residents a chance to weigh in on the May River Watershed Action Plan has been postponed until a yet-to-be-determined date in October.

Two committees recently held public meetings to review the plan, and the town staff needs more time to address those comments, according to a town press release.

Information: Contact Ron Bullman, director of the Stormwater Management Division, at 843-706-7805 or rbullman@townofbluffton.com.